for the current week is now ready for the mails. It contains all the political and general news of the day, including the great regatta on the Schuylkill, the progress of the campaign in South Carolina and Mississippi, the foreign war in the Turkish provinces and the record of current events. It is the largest and cheapest campaign paper in the country.

GOLD continues at the low figure of nine and a fraction. This is owing to the negotiation of the new four-and a-half per cent. Government loan through the "syn-

THE report of General O. E. Babcock, Commissioner of Public Buildings and Grounds, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1876, is printed elsewhere. As usual it embraces a complete statement of the details of the work done under General Bab cock's supervision, and is of more than ordinary interest to the residents of the District. It reflects credit upon its author as well as his management of the affairs of the important office which he so capably

THE STORY goes that Horatio Seymour was induced by Tilden to accept the Democratic nomination to be Governor of New York, with the understanding that he (Seymour) should not be required to take an active part in the pending cauvass, and that in the event of Tilden's election to be Mr. Goode has simply carried out the plans President Seymour shall be Secretary of of his predecessor he has no doubt im-State of the United States. The practical | proved upon the tactics of Mr. Platt by inresult of this scheme would make Tilden's tool, Dorsheimer, Governor of the Empire much attention, and demands favorable comment upon the policy pursued by the Administration as regards the Government finances. This policy includes the act of giving to competing financial firms the privilege of placing the new funded loan upon the markets of the world. This competition has resulted in a rapid placing of the bonds and the withdrawal of a corresponding number of the old bonds, accompanied by a decline in gold.

THE "Reform" Democrats of Texas have just nominated Hon. D. C. Giddings to succeed Hon. John Hancock in Congress. The latter was a Union man during the war, while the former obtained his seat in Congress some years ago by the subornation of perjury, as is related elsewhere. When Giddings was nominated the other day a Hancock delegate arose and offered a resolution to the effect that it should not be in order hereafter in a Democratic convention to support a candidate who was a Union man during the late war. The introduction of the resolution was pronounced unwise, and all reference to it was ordered to be expunged from the journal.

HORATIO SEYMOUR'S father committed suicide, the deed being superinduced by softening of the brain. The son of this suicide has carefully avoided prolonged political or mental struggles and excitement, and in doing so has frequently withdrawn from active political life. His reason for these withdrawals was a fear that the disease which resulted in his father's unfortunate demise might be provoked in him by extraordinary physical or mental exertion. In fact, he refused or declined to be elected to the United States Senate on this account. When he was nominated, a few days ago, as the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, he was lying on a sick-bed, so seriously ill that his physicians and friends, as it is reported, thought it judicious not to inform him of that fact. In short, it is not improbable that the gifted candidate of the New York Democracy may be called upon to vote either for an idlot or a corpse for Governor, if they persist in keeping Horatio Seymour's name upon their ticket until the coming election.

DEMOCRATS are prone to deny that ostracism is practiced in the South against Republicans, but the fact that such is the case in that benighted region is too well established to be successfully gainsaid. About two years since Colonel John L. Conley, son of ex-Governor Conley, of Georgia, was a young lawyer, who, by actual merit and assiduous attention to duty, had built up a most lucrative practice. About eighteen months since Col. Conley had occasion to parade his regiment of militia through the main thoroughfares of Atlanta, displaying freely the Stars and Stripes. This excited the direful wrath of the unterrified, and they put out the flut that Conley was no longer to be employed by them as an attorney. A few months thereafter found Conley without practice, and although the entire bar of Georgia now daily use a valuable disquisition upon the Constitution of Georgia by him, yet that little affair of the Stars and Stripes resulted in his becoming a briefless lawyer. Until recently Col. Conley was internal revenue collector of one of the Georgia districts, but was left out at the time of the consolidation. He is a sterling Republican, and deserves well at the hands of the party. AT A grand Haves and Wheeler ratification meeting held at Gadsden, S. C., on the 23d ultimo, the Democracy put forward their oratorical champion, the brilliant Le-Roy F. Youmans, to reply to the masterly arguments of Hon. Robert B. Elliott. Col. Youmans entered upon the discussion not without misgivings, as he had more than once met Mr. Elliott at the bar, and fully appreciated the fact that he was a yeoman worthy of his steel. Democrats and Republicans alike admitted that Youmans was badly worsted in the contest, and they will meanwhile have to look up another man to confront Mr. Elliott. There was no at tempt at intimidation at the meeting in question, as the Republicans were fully two thousand strong, armed in every conceivable manner, and the Democratic rifle clubs did not exceed six hundred. Another reason why the Democracy behaved themselves on the occasion was owing to the presence of Col. Youmans, who is well known for his conservatism.

THE Empire of Turkey is evidently rapidly disintegrating. The rapidity with which rulers are changed is but a prelude to early partition and possible division among the great Powers. Russia wants free outlet for her Black sea trade through the Bosphorus. Austria would not object to absorbing two or three of the adjoining provinces. Religious liberty will be made the excuse for the spoliation of the sick man, but the real inspiring motive will after all be transparent as grasping avarice and Imperial aggrandizement. England will be won over by her desire for commercial expansion and the excellent excuse that she is defending the Christian religion and protecting human life. This gilding will make the pill palatable to Germany, France and Italy as well. It will take some time yet to complete the game. Some regard must be had for appearances, But the matrimonial alliances between the Imperial houses of Europe are too extensive to admit of any doubt as to the ulterior designs of the Great Powers. The Empress of India, the Emperor of Russia, the Emperor of Germany are closely allied by the inter-marriage of their children, while the Emperor of Austria is little more than a figurehead among them. Whether the downfall of Turkey will be succeeded by the dismemberment of that Empire or by placing a Russo-English family upon the throne to rule the mixed populations of Christians and Mussulmans remains for the future to develop.

MR. JOHN GOODE boasts that he obtained more money for his district than all the other Virginia Congressmen together. Addressing the convention which renominsted him the other day he said that "he had obtained an appropriation of $35,000 for "the improvement of our common harbors "for the first time in the history of the "country; an appropriation of $15,000 "for Nansemond river light-house; $40,000 "for the naval magazine; $5,000 for our "river and $5,000 for Nansemond river "in all, $150,000 for this district, and for "the navy yard most ample appropriations "Congress had made. If the mechanics "of Portsmouth, he said, have not been "put to work the responsibility rests with "the Administration. Secretary Robeson has the money. The Democratic House "of Representatives have provided the "means for carrying on the work, and the "neglect lies with the Navy Department." We have exposed the trick by which he obtained the $15,000 for the Nansemond light, and will now take occasion to say in old times "befo' the wa'" Virginia statesmen of the Democratic persuasion refused all appropriations for the improvements of rivers and harbors as unconstitutional. But Mr. Platt has inaugurated the practice during his service of obtaining judicious appropriations for these pur poses, and the proper officers have supervised their economical expenditure. While troducing his novel method of obtaining unnecessary appropriations surreptitiously as an important feature of Democratic re form. He could scarcely do less after THE recent decline in gold has attracted | having joined Tilden's band of "Reform ers.

EDITORIAL POSTSCRIPT.

The "national game" of base ball appears to have been nearly extinguished by the other attractions and pastimes of the Centennial year, and it is doubtful whether sufficient patronage can again be secured to support the high-salaried professionals who compose the leading clubs.

Horatio Seymour still declines the nomination for Governor at the hands of the Democracy of the State of New York. As Mr. Tilden proposes to run the campaign, Gov. Seymour need have no apprehensions as to his services being required prior to the first of January next, when the new Governor assumes his office. There is no probability of his being elected. We see no necessity, therefore, for the mental or physical effort, which is forbidden by his physician. On second thought, and viewing the subject in this light, Mr. Seymour may yet consent to the use of his name for so harmless a purpose. His service would be simply automatic.

Hancock vs. Giddings.

(From the Waco (Texas) Register, Aug. 25.) Our Austin correspondent alludes to an affidavit once made by a poor man in the interest of Clint Giddings, on account of which he was convicted of perjury and sent to the penitentiary. The case was this : Giddings was contesting with Clark for his seat in Congress. His object was to make it appear to Congress that he had been beaten by fraud-false registration, &c. In Robertson county he found a poor, simple-minded fellow who had had something to do with registration in the county. The poor fellow got up a correspondence be-tween himself and Gov. Davis, in which Gov. Davis purported to direct him to tamper with bavis purported to direct him to tamper with the registration, which correspondence he swore to and put in the hands of Giddings for the latter to use before Congress in getting Clark's seat. The correspondence was proved to be false—a "put-up job"—and for making oath to it the poor fellow was convicted of perjury in the United States Court at Austin and sent to the penitentiary. Giddings was and sent to the penitentiary. Giddings was sent for in the case, and it was drawn out of him on the witness stand that he had paid the poor tool a twenty-dollar gold piece. The poor tool was sentenced to the penitentiary, and may be there vet. Giddings went to Congress and took the back pay. Subsequently he got the thirty odd thousand dollars from Coke for the going-to-England job. Both together make him a "barrel of money" and as good for a Democratic nomination as Tilden's. Such are the "reform" candidates which the Democratic party is putting up. TAX NOTICE! TAX NOTICE! Headquarters for payment of Special Improve-

This well-known and popular Summer Resort, on the Maryland side of the Potomac river, sixteen miles below Washington, D. C., and opposite Mount Vernon, is now offered for sale op easy terms, or will trade for city property. The place contains 570 acres of land, in excellent state of cultivation; has 15,000 young peach trees, nearly all in bearing; an orchard of over 190 choice varieties of apples; a well-built old-fashioned mansion, with 12 rooms and spacious halls, a large barn and several outbuiltings, all in good order, and fitted up in every way for a No. 1 farm. good order, and fitted up in every way for a No. I farm.

The river front is fitted up especially for excursionists, and is, without exception, the best location for this purpose on the Potomic river. There is an extensive lawn reaching down to the water's edge, numerous shade trees, arbors, booths, patent swings, &c., and a pavillion the largest south of Philadelphia. There is excellent fishing, battling, and boating at the place, and it is thought that a first-class Semmer Boarding-bouse would pay well, as there is nothing of the kind within sevenity-five as mere is nothing of the ainst within seventy-we miles.

A public road leads down to the wharf in front of the premises, and is the principal, if not the only, outlet toward the river for fruits and produce from farmers in Charles county. The site is a good one for a store, and there is a building on the place admirably adapted for such a purpose.

The steamers Maxy Washington and Arrow, from Washington, touch at the wharf on their daily trips downward and upward. The Lady of the Lake, the Jane Mosely, the Thompson, and the two Baltimore boots (the Washington and the Express) stop at regolar intervals, and daily excursions are run to he blace.
An enterprising party could easily make a for-une at this stand. Apply to
